DISTRICT, and Johnson and Dennis Davis are the instructors. We are just delighted to have you here today as observers to the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature.

CLERK: Message on the desk, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Read the message on the desk.

CLERK: From the Executive office date March 28 (read)

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: A matter of personal privilege, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Proceed.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I told those people who I introduced the bill for and as recently as yesterday, as long as two weeks ago that in no condition would I move to override this bill. I have absolutely no interest in the bill at all. The Governor can presume those things which he shouldn't do. He feels he is going to try to entrap Senator Carpenter, and he never lived long enough to ever do that.

PRESIDENT: LB851. Clerk will read.
